Community Announcements

Marlborough Breakfast Programme: We were guinea pigs on the 2nd as the first Breakfast at Marlborough since March 2020. It went smoothly and we were out the door before 8am. The staff was full of smiles and a note from the VP Neil McAuley said “It was wonderful to have you back, IN PERSON, at Marlborough. It felt right.” If you are still interested in being a part of this valuable outreach ministry, please speak to Cathy and we can slot you into our group as you wish.

Christmas Craft and Food Market (CCFM) update.

Crafts: Please return completed crafting projects as soon as possible. If you had good intentions but cannot complete a project, bring it back, we have many crafters ready to help. Contact Danielle at 519-972-9058 (home) 519-982-4226 (cell).

Tourtiere Sales: Preorders will be taken by Cathy MacKendrick for large pies at $18.00 and Small pies at $8.00. Call at 519 966 5729.

Calling all bakers – we need your donations for the CCFM on Nov. 12. Please consider baking quick breads, pies, squares or cookies for the baked goods table. We will also need volunteers to help package our goods in the days ahead of Nov. 12. Any questions please call Pat Lown at 969-8450 or Nadine Donlon at 519-965-4786.

Essex Anglican Church Women Fall Tea: Saturday October 22, 12 to 2pm at St. Mary's Walkerville. Guest Speakers from Canterbury Elder College. RSVP, if planning to attend, at 519-253-5221. A Country Store of baked goods and crafts will be available with proceeds to support Canterbury College.

I publish the Banns of Marriage between Amber Pare and Ted Felet (both of Windsor). If any of you know cause or just impediment why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, you are to declare it. This is the first time of asking.

All Saints' observance - You are invited to print the names of the dearly departed in the Book of the Names of the Dead (at the front of the church) for inclusion in our 10 am liturgy on Sunday, Nov. 6.
