Christmas Craft and Food Market – Saturday, November 15 from 9am to 3pm. We are less than a month away. Sign up sheets for various duties are in the Parish Hall - because of the longer hours, we have the ability to have more flexible shifts. Please sign up as soon as possible so that we know what areas still need to be addressed. Posters and flyers are available on the table in the Narthex - please take some and post them in your workplaces, your local shopping venues, your friends and neighbours mailboxes - anywhere you think will generate interest. Please give this your prayerful consideration and help make this event the best yet!

All Saints' Day, November 2 – Please enter the names of loved ones in the Book of the Names of the Dead on the table at the front of the church so that they can be especially remembered during the 10 am liturgy.
