PWRDF Announces $15,000 in relief funding after Saskatchewan Wildfires

Forest fires burning across northern Saskatchewan have resulted in the evacuation of thousands of people from their homes. With Anglicans making up a large percentage of evacuees, church members are providing strong support to local relief efforts while praying for those affected.

To help evacuees, the Primate's World Relief and Development Fund has pledged a $15,000 donation to support relief efforts by the Prince Albert Grand Council (PAGC), a tribal council of 12 sovereign First Nations with approximately 30,000 members through the northern parts of the province.

Bishop Hawkins, Diocese of Saskatchewan, asks church members to pray particular for:

- The safety of those fighting the fires and assisting evacuees
- For comfort, strength, and patience for evacuees
- For rain to bring relief from the fires.

Please visit the above web site to make a contribution if you are moved to do so. With thanks
