CCFM Acknowledgments – everyone and anyone who had a part, great or small, in the fulfillment of this year's Christmas Craft and Food Market deserves a huge thank you. At time of printing, we were in full preparation mode, filled with anticipation for another successful event. Regardless of the final financial tally, we are way ahead in the fellowship and friendship department. And for this, we feel very blessed for all your help and support. Sincerely, Beth and Danielle

Blanket Exercise: Saturday November 17th at St. Matthew's at 10:00am. It is an exercise to help everyone understand the indigenous experience of colonization. It is through this exercise that meaningful dialogue can begin the process of reconciliation. If you have never done it, you will find it enlightening. If you have done it once, the second time is even better. Come, join with our sisters and brothers of All Saints to make this a memorable event for all.

Our Children's Aid Christmas tree is now in the Narthex. Please take a tag(s) and bring your new gifts back, unwrapped, with the tree tag attached to the gift by December 2nd. Thank you for generosity and support
